

University of Central Florida to Host Bands of America Marching Band Championship

ORLANDO, FL (Date) – Young musicians will bring live music back to the Camping World Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 16, as high school marching bands from throughout Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, and Texas will compete in the 2021 Bands of America (BOA) Alabama Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha. Bands of America Championships are the premier marching band events in the nation and are entertaining, family-friendly events featuring live music, choreography, and competition.

Hosted by the University of Central Florida, the Bands of America Championship will feature 21 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 12 scoring bands will advance to the evening finals competition.

The Band Room is the Official Music Retailer of the 2021 BOA Orlando Regional.

The Orlando Regional is one of 22 Bands of America marching band championships across the country this fall that provide positively life-changing experiences for students, teachers, and fans. Bands of America Championships return in 2021 after the 2020 season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. "The enthusiastic return of the bands performing at this championship is a testament to the resilience, dedication, and hard work of these young student musicians, their teachers, school administrators, parents, and families," says Dr. Jeremy Earnhart, President and CEO of Music for All.

The BOA season concludes with the Bands of America Grand National Championships, presented by Yamaha and the U.S. Marines, in Indianapolis Nov. 11-13.

Music for All, a non-profit 501(c)3 educational organization, has been creating, providing, and expanding positively life-changing experiences through music for all for school music ensembles, students, and teachers since 1975.

"Music for All is about building leaders and celebrating teachers. The Bands of America Championship in Orlando is a celebration of music education at its finest, showcasing the excellence, teamwork, and student leadership of the region's outstanding marching bands," says Earnhart. "These young performers and their achievements advocate for the importance of music education in schools locally and nationwide."

Music and arts involvement teaches youth many skills necessary to succeed in life, including problem-solving and decision-making, building self-confidence and self-discipline, personal responsibility, teamwork, and more. Research shows attendance and graduation rates are higher for students who participate in their school music programs. The College Entrance Examination Board found that students involved in public school music programs scored, on average, 107 points higher on the SATs than students with no participation.

Music for All will present the Bands of America Orlando Regional Championship at Camping World Stadium (1 Citrus Bowl Place, Orlando, FL, 32805) on Oct 16. Preliminary competition begins at 9:30 a.m., and will conclude at approximately 4:30 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:30, with performances starting at 7:30 p.m. All times are tentative, pending the final schedule of performing bands. Current times will be listed at marching.musicforall.org/orlando21. Individual tickets for Prelims are $25 and tickets for Finals are $31 and day passes are $40. Non-performing student groups can purchase day pass bundles with 2 free adult passes for every 20 tickets purchased. Children 10 years old or younger are admitted free for general admission seating. Music for All is adopting a digital ticketing system this year and tickets can be purchased online for this event at a discounted price. All attendees will be required to have a ticket for entry, including children.
