

2024 Bands of America Championship Season Continues in Piscataway, New Jersey Oct. 26

14 high school marching bands will compete for the regional championship title

PISCATAWAY, NJ- High School marching band students from across the region will perform at the Bands of America New Jersey Regional Championship presented by Yamaha, Saturday, Oct. 26 at SHI Stadium at Rutgers University.

Bands from North Carolina, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Virginia will compete. Bands of America Championships are the nation's premier marching band events, showcasing outstanding student musicians and visual performances.

This event is hosted by the Rutgers University Marching Scarlet Knights.

There will be an exhibition performance by the Rutgers University Scarlet Marching Knights following the conclusion of the preliminary competition at 3:45p.m.

"Marching band is even more than music and performance; it's a powerful experience that builds discipline, teamwork, and lifelong memories," says Dr. Jeremy Earnhart, President and CEO of Music for All, the parent organization for Bands of America. "Participating in Bands of America Championships takes that to the next level, challenging high school students to strive for excellence, showcase their talents on a national stage, and feel the pride of being part of something truly extraordinary."

Bands take the field for preliminary competition performances at 11:30 a.m. Doors will open to the public at 11:00 a.m. Times are subject to change, visit marching.musicforall.org for the latest event schedule.

Performances will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The 12 highest-scoring bands will advance to the evening finals with the top-scoring band named champion at the end of the night. The first competing finalist band is at 7:00 p.m. with gates opening at 6:00 p.m.

The Bands of America Championships season includes 30 events across America, culminating with the Bands of America Grand National Championships Nov. 14-16 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.
