Available for all 2025 BOA Grand National Championships non-participating bands, AND includes a Friday (general admission) prelims ticket.*

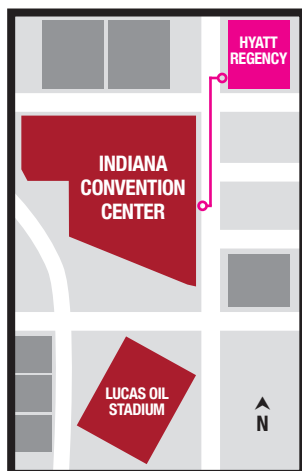

During the 2025 Bands of America Grand National Championships, you and your entire band can experience a servant leadership message in a fresh, interactive format that your students, staff, and parents will talk about long after Grand Nationals is over! Music for All and Bands of America invite you to bring your entire band to one of our BOA Leadership Blast sessions on Friday, November 14, 2025 and inspire everyone in your program through a mix of listen and learn plus leadership activities for immediate application of skills.

Register and sign-up for the session that works best for your band's schedule today. Space is limited and only offered to bands who pre-register.
